DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 11-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 11 is indefinite because it is unclear whether the claimed composition is to include both Ge and Sn. (i.e. (Ge, Sn))

Claim 11 is indefinite because it is unclear what A represents. i.e. is it in atomic percent, etc.

Claim 11 is indefinite because it is unclear what B represents. i.e. is it in atomic percent, etc.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed January 8, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant has argued that the prior art does not teach the claimed composition sputter deposited onto the substrate. While the Examiner agrees that the cited prior art does not teach the claimed composition where Ge, Sn, Sb, Te and an element or elements M is present the Examiner is unclear whether Sn is to be present together with the Ge. This is discussed above in 35 U.S.C. 112 rejections discussed above and needs to be clarified for the record.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

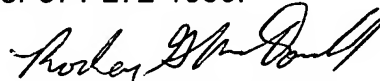

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
